O1 Properties Christmas Cup 2015 Tournament was held at Alexander Ostrovsky Academy

Moscow, Russia. January 10, 2015. Investment company O1 Properties, one of the largest owners of class A office real estate in Moscow, acted as an official partner of the tennis tournament O1 Properties Christmas Cup 2015 of the Tennis Europe 1 category among 14-year-old tennis players, which was held on January 5-10 at Alexander Ostrovsky Academy in Khimki.

The tournament gathered the world's strongest juniors in the given age group, with US and Canadian teams participating for the first time in the history of TE tournaments in Russia. Among the tournament's guests were leading Russian tennis players: Shamil Tarpishchev, Vladimir Lazarev, Evgeny Kafelnikov, Aleksey Selivanenko, Anastasia Myskina, Igor Kunitsyn and Dmitry Tursunov.

For the second year in a row the Academy's leading student Anastasia Popova (coach – Irina Doronina) won the competition among the girls. Like a year ago, Potapova won the double even as well. Playing with Maria Novikova, Anastasia outperformed the US duet of Casey Harvey and Natasha Subhash. Russian junior Timofey Skatov also won both in singles and doubles among the boys.

The organizers prepared a saturated entertainment program for the participants. Thus on one of the competition days the Academy's senior coach Aleksey Pavlov and Anastasia Potapova played in a mixed double against the famous Russian tennis players Anastasia Myskina and Igor Kunitsyn.
