O1 Properties for the fourth time becomes partner of the theatre festival

Golden Mask

Moscow, Russia. January 30, 2014. The investment company O1 Properties, one of the major owners of prime office real estate in Moscow, is pleased to announce the extension of partnership with the Russian Performing Arts Festival and National Theatre Award Golden Mask, to be held in Moscow from January 25th to April 17th of 2014. The Golden Mask Awards ceremony will take place on April 18th on the stage of Bolshoi Theatre.

Boris Mints, chairman of board of directors O1 Group: «O1 Properties for the fourth time becomes the festival's partner and we are happy to be part of such a grand-scale and remarkable cultural project. We think it very important to patronize the national art, including the drama art which is now undergoing another revival»

Golden Mask Festival and Award was established in 1993 by the Theatre Union of Russian Federation as professional award for best performances of the season in all genres of the theatre art (drama, opera, ballet, modern dance, operetta/musical, puppet show). The winners are determined at the annual Festival of Nominee Performances, in 34 nominations or categories.

This year the festival is held for the 20th time. The jubilee season will feature new events, including the night show devoted to the 20th anniversary of the National Theatre Awards and the «Golden Mask» Festival, the media project «Best of the worlds: the self-revealing history of the Russian theatre», the programs «Context: relevant overseas stage shows» and «Children's Weekend», a series of events under the common name «Golden Mask in the City», a photo and theatre installation in the GUM mall.
